

IN THE NUDE

These spring accessories look—and feel—like a second skin.

By MARY OSSOVSKAYA

HOT STEP

Like sculptures for your feet, Nicholas Kirkwood's buttery suede, sling-back platform sandals will inspire a strut in your step—even on your early-morning coffee run. $795; Nordstrom, 865 Market St., 415-243-8500

LEARNING CURVE

Schoolgirl charm meets grown-up chic in Proenza Schouler's leather double-strap PS1 pochette—it's just the right size for your daytime gadgets as well as your going-out essentials. $895; Barneys New York, 77 O'Farrell St., 415-268-3500

AMP UP YOUR WARDROBE WITH THE LATEST SPRING TRENDS AT 7x7.COM.

ALMOST FAMOUS

We guarantee movie-star treatment when you slip on these oversize Oliver Peoples' Gulsette sunglasses, which will have you ready for any flashbulbs that come your way. $390; Soistice, 845 Market St., 415-543-4100

LIGHTEN UP

Feel good about swapping out your bulky winter wrap for Love Quotes' breezy Italian-linen scarf—10 percent of sales proceeds will be donated to international children's charities. $98; tobi.com

SPRING BREAK

Wear this sleek wood-and-enamel cuff bracelet by Marri with one of spring's floaty floral frocks, a floppy straw hat and sky-high espadrilles for a look that says Palm Beach Princess. $400; Neiman Marcus, 150 Stockton St., 415-362-3900

PATENT PENDING

The shift to warmer temps calls for unleashing your inner vixen. We suggest starting the season with this high-shine, waist-accentuating patent-leather belt from Armani Exchange. $58; 2090 Union St., 415-749-0891

COAST TO COAST

City gals will appreciate this fuss-free addition to their beauty arsenal: sheer, nude lipsticks by NP Set in such universally flattering shades (shown here) as Washington and San Francisco. $15; Napoleon Perdis, 865 Market St., 415-546-1711, npcosmetics.com

